TORRANCE

Driver safety seminar for teens

In conjunction with California's Teen Driver Safety Week, a nonprofit that aims to turn out better teen drivers through parental involvement is giving a seminar in Torrance.

The Laguna Niguel-based Our Teen Driver Foundation will officially launch in Los Angeles County on Wednesday, with a one-hour workshop at West High School.

"An Hour with the Experts," which is scheduled for 6 p.m., will feature representatives from the Torrance Police Department, the Department of Motor Vehicles, the California Department of Insurance and the California Highway Patrol.

The public is invited to attend the event focused on informing parents about teen driving safety.

Up-to-date information on traffic laws, DMV requirements and related educational opportunities also will be presented.

West High is at 20401 Victor St.
